Re: Yekusiel Sebwrow v. Fulton, Friedman & Gullace, LLP, et al.
Civil Action No.: 10-CV-5897 (DLI)(RER)
KBR File No. : 252.003

Dear Judge Irizarry:

This office represents the defendants in the above-referenced matter. On August 1, 2012, the plaintiff filed an unopposed motion for preliminary approval of the parties' class settlement agreement. On August 22, 2012, Your Honor directed the parties, in relevant part, to: "provide the court, by letter not to exceed three pages, arguments as to whether the parties' proposed method of notifying the class members comports with due process in light of [Hecht v. United Collection Bureau, Inc.]" By letters dated September 7 and 11, 2012, the parties responded to Your Honor's directions. While we are mindful that the Court has a full docket with cases that require more immediate attention than the present action, the defendants respectfully request that a decision on the motion for preliminary approval of the settlement be made at the Court's earliest convenience so as to advance this case forward. The pending litigation has had real life consequences on some of the defendants by impeding their ability to secure financing. As such, the defendants are eager to reach a conclusion to the litigation as contemplated between the parties. Thank you for your understanding and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

KAUFMAN BORGEEST & RYAN LLP
